

How did Tony Anthony hold 400 teenagers from a variety of backgrounds spellbound for an hour? As he gave an insight into his life as a disciple of Kung Fu under the guidance of his grandfather and subsequent demise as a human being into a life of crime and imprisonment.

The account is littered with the hopes and aspirations, the trails and tribulations every teenager has. What is conveyed most clearly is the endurance of Tony Anthony's spirit in the face of violence, death, crime and imprisonment. With brutal honesty Tony details the Kung Fu training that sets him on a pathway he would later reject. In the acceptance of Christ's love he finds peace and redemption and ultimate happiness. No one could resist the power of this testimony and not be changed.

Mr F J McGhee Director of Religious Education

