

Subject: Character Reference for Tony Anthony

I first met Tony Anthony in my home church Emmanuel Evangelical Church, Marsham Street, London, UK in the early 2000s. He and his team came to give a talk on evangelism which I found very inspiring and encouraging. That stirred my passion to pass the Good News of Jesus Christ to as many people as possible. Since then we have been in touch exchanging ideas and encouraging each other in God's mission. At times we brainstorm and challenge each other on ways to share God's Word as effectively as possible so that others can be impacted by His love and want to change their lifestyle as a result.

What are Tony's strengths?

I found Tony very passionate in reaching as many people with the Good News of Jesus. His faith in God is commendable because he loves the Lord Jesus who had changed his life round from martial arts to Christ. His trust in the Lord for all things and that He will provide and supply his every need is an encouragement for those who had been through hard times. He walks the talk and that is what a man of God should be. Tony can be very generous to the point of giving literature free if people cannot afford to buy them. He wants many to be blessed with the ministry tools for outreach work. The prison ministry which Tony was involved in has been an eye opener for many who do not know how to reach out to the 'lost' in prison with the Good News. It was amazing to see how those hardened people were touched by the Holy Spirit and they gave their lives to Jesus. My zeal for evangelism has increased since meeting Tony. He will be Christ's ambassador wherever he goes and I pray for the Holy Spirit to guide him always.

Wherever Tony goes as the Lord leads, may he stand tall for the glory of God and the name of Jesus be declared in all his preaching. I pray that all brethren in Christ will support him in ways that the Lord touch each one of us to do. These are the last days and let's encourage one another to bring in the harvest as Christ had commanded all of us to do (Matthew 28: 18-20).

Dr Peter Tan (March 2014)

Chairman of Global Accreditation Association for Theological Education (Canada)